Tips for Getting Around

Public Transport

Buses are the most common form of transport in Vilnius. The best way to conveniently access public transport is by purchasing a JUDU / Vilniecio Korteles cards and top it up with desired public transport tickets. The card can be found at MAXIMA and RIMI supermarkets, as well as Narvesen and Lietuvos Spauda selling locations. When topping up the card at the ticket distribution point, inform the seller about the desired type of e-ticket you would like to add to your card. Additionally, you have the option to purchase e-tickets via the JUDU self-service.

For short-term, convenient access to public transport, consider buying the Vilnius Pass, which is available for 24, 48, and 72 hours. It also includes perks like free admission to certain museums and more.

CycloCity Vilnius account can be added to your Vilniecio transport card, allowing you to use bikes all over the city for a small fee. This can be done at:

Other options to buy tickets:

The m.Ticket and Trafi apps are alternative ways to buy and use tickets on your phone, plan your trips by choosing the most convenient route, and look up the timetables. Keep in mind that it's necessary to have a Lithuanian phone number to use these apps.
